GLORIOUS GRYPHON GATHERING DEPT:

After Lehigh's grapplers have doused the Navy squad this coming Saturday evening, Don Derse and his crew have promised us a relaxing and entertaining time in the Counselors' Lounge of Richards. On tap will be the usual, plus soda and sundry party snacks; Don has rounded up the best recorded dancing music, and with a little coaxing, you can probably get some piano playing from the "Bear" to sing along with. There may be some other surprise titbits in store, so be sure to be there with a date. Oh yes, if by some strange quirk of fate you have no date, be sure to see John Harmon, Dravo A-306, who is head entrepreneur between here and Cedar Crest College. The chaperones will be Mr. and Mrs. Kable of Houseparty fame.

NOTIZMENTS:

Executive Board meeting in Richards loungs Sunday, 8 Feb., 7 PM.

All-Gryphon meeting Monday, 9 Feb., 10 PM, room 408 UC.

SPEAKING AFTER-DINNERLY

will be Mr. William Kenawell this Tuesday, at the first Gryphon-Faculty Banquet. More information about time and place in the next PRICKED EAR, but we can promise that the talk will be an interesting and competent discussion of Existentialism. Mr. Kenawell has given speeches to several other groups on this topic, and received acclaim. This is the first of a projected series featuring talks by prominent men from on and off campus; Howard Troy will tell you more about Mr. Kenawell and the series at the Gryphon meeting on Monday.
